Reiek Tlang is one of the hills located just outside Aizawl (about 12 kms away) and is a popular destination for adventure seekers.

The views surrounding the hill are breathtaking and makes the visit worthwhile.

There is a heritage village set up by the tourism department in Reiek, that gives visitors a glimpse into the lifestyle of Mizo villagers.

Located at a distance of 50 kms to the south of Aizawl, Hmuifang Mountain with an elevation of 1619 metres, is still covered with virgin forests reserved since the days of the Mizo chiefs. Hmuifang Tourist Resort, located at the scenic peak of the mountain, has been created and maintained by the Mizoram Government.

The resort was built on the former land of the erstwhile Mizo chief and offers an ideal getaway in the midst of nature. The resort has comfortable accommodation offering 6 double rooms and a cafeteria. The patches of grasslands on the peak are also ideal for picnics and outdoor camping.

Solomon's Temple is a church located in Aizawl Mizoram, India. The temple was constructed by the religious group Kohhran Thianghlim, translated as 'The Holy Church' in English. It was founded by Dr. L.B. Sailo in 1984 and is non-denominational. The temple is one of the largest in Mizoram state.

The main building has twelve main doors, three doors per wall. The exterior walls of the Temple face exactly South, North, East, and West. Above the porch are four pillars, each carrying seven David's stars, meant to represent the seven churches of the Book of Revelation. On each of the pillars is a picture of the Cross of Jesus Christ and the emblem of the Holy Church. Atop the porch is an image of two angels blowing trumpets which face the top of the pillar and flank the northern side of the pillar, which is now used as the main entrance. The temple has four towers, one on each corner. Each tower is topped with a crown, representing the Crown of Salvation, the Crown of Righteousness, the Crown of Life and the Crown of the Overcomers. There are two intersecting horizontal ridges that cross in the middle of the pitch roof such that when viewed from the air they form a cross, representing the new covenant. The Temple has 32 windows, 32 ventilations, and 32 skylights.
